II. LONG ANSWER TYPE QUESTIONS

1. Why did Jumman Shaikh and Algu Chowdhry, the two good friends, become sworn enemies?

Ans: Jumman and Algu were fast friends. They trusted each other blindly. But an incident broke them apart. Jumman had got the property of his old aunt. But after some duration he began to ignore and ill treat her. She demanded a monthly allowance or the return of her land. The panchayat was called to hear the case. Algu as the head Panch decided the case in favour of the old aunt. The two friends became sworn enemies.

2. How did Jumman and Algu get over their bitterness and become friends again?

Ans: Jumman Shaikh and Algu Chowdhry broke up when Algu gave his verdict in favour of Jumman's aunt. Algu heard the voice of his conscience and did justice. But Jumman waited for his turn to take revenge. He got that chance soon. Algu was being cheated by Sahu. Hence, a panchayat was held. Sahu named Jumman as head Panch. But as soon as Jumman occupied that seat of responsibility, he too decided the case on facts and merit. His verdict in favour of Algu brought them closer once again.

3. Which is more desirable-friendship or enmity? When does a person hear strongly the voice of his conscience?

Ans: It goes without saying that friendship is based on goodwill and respect for one another. Enmity is created by hatred and ill-will. Friendship is definitely far better than enmity. Every person has a weakness for friends. But the moment he occupies the seat of judgement, he hears the voice of his conscience and gives a fair verdict.
