3. Imagine that you are the poet. You have come to your native valley to meet a famous preacher called Ernest the incident of your first meeting with him.

Answer: I lived so far away from the valley. But I had heard about Ernest's character and wisdom. One summer day I called on him. I found him reading a book. We sat down together and talked. I found Ernest wise, gentle and kind. Ernest greeted me warmly and called me a 'gifted guest' Then I introduced myself as one who wrote the poems Ernest was reading.

Ernest compared my face with the Stone Face. He had hoped to see the fulfilment of the prophecy but he was disappointed.

I told him I was not worthy of that likeness. I said that my thoughts and actions had no harmony.

I went with my host to a meeting place. I heard his address and found depth in his thoughts. In the golden light of the setting sun, Ernest appeared to me exactly like the Great Stone Face. The gathering also agreed with me.
